

South Kentuckian.
CHAS. M. MACHAM, Editor.
HOPKINSVILLE, OCT. 10, 1882
FOR CONGRESS,
JAMES F. CLAY,
OF HENDERSON.

11th District
JOHN R. GRACE,
OF TRIGG.

FOR CONGRESS,
Dr. Wm. M. Fugate, of Christian, is a candidate for Congress in opposition to Mr. Clay in the Second District, subject in the action of the Democratic State Convention. Election November 7th, 1882.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.
Wilbur F. Browder, of Logan Co., is a candidate for Attorney General, subject to the action of the Democratic State Convention. Election in August, 1883.

Carter H. Harrison, Mayor of Chicago, has declined the Democratic nomination for Congress.

The author of the Morey letter has been found. He is a Republican and his name is H. H. Hailley.

The contest between Blackburn and Owens in the Seventh District will be settled by a primary election next Saturday.

No Oscar Wilde, no Galileo, no James Boys and no Arabi Bey in the papers. Truly the millennium must be near to hand!

Mr. Clay can take revenge upon those who opposed him so bitterly by sending them the Cong. Rec., when he gets to Congress.

One of the ladies connected with Sells Bros. show was killed by a falling pole, while the tent was being taken down at Pulaski, Tenn., last Thursday.

Judge Grace's name is such an easy one to make puns on that even the Pulchra Times has been trying its best and straining its intellectual faculties.

The Yeoman says there are no trees whatever for pardons by the Governor, and that the statement that the assistant secretary of state gets $2 for each opus is an error.

Our thanks are due to the officers of the Kuttawa Agricultural Society, for an invitation to attend their annual Fair, which meets to day and continues three days.

Other chapters of "Unwritten Li-tory of the R. P. A." will appear from time to time. Urey Woodson, Zeno Young and Tom Cannon can rest assured they will not be slighted.

Jim Cummings, one of the notorious James gang, was arrested a few days since by the sheriff of Caldwell county. There is no question of his identity, and he will be turned over to the Missouri authorities for trial.

Zeno Young says the sentiment in Madisonville predominates in favor of Jones. We judged as much from talking with a prominent young druggist of that town, but we didn't want to make any rash statements about it.

Rev. J. W. Asbury, a colored preacher, has been nominated for Congress by the Republican party of the Seventh District. Of course he will have no chance to be elected and was probably given the empty honor because no white man wanted it.

There has been still another change in the chairmanship of the State Central Committee. Mr. J. Booker Reed, of Louisville, has succeeded Hon. J. M.
Atherton, who resigned. Mr. Reed is a young man and is said to be well fitted for the responsible position.

One year's subscription to the Kentucky Gazette will be given as a premium at the Kuttawa Fair this week, to the earliest man present. Zeno Young, Tom Cannon and Urey Woodson will not be entered, as no man can compete who has ever taken a premium in a similar ring.

Mary Sullivan, a woman connected with the Campbell-Sullivan gang of thieves and desperadoes, of Caldwell county, was taken from her bed last week by a mob and hanged. This is the fourth hanging that has resulted from the lawless state of affairs in our western county.

Does Mr. Clay endorse the action of his friends in stealing half of the vote of Christian county? If he will state that he does not, all differences in this county will be healed and the party harmonized. His answer to this question will either make or lose him hundreds of votes.

A pretty orphan girl, 17 years old, advertised in the Fulton Fultonian for a husband, because she wants a permanent home. If she wants her husband to act as a trustee for a reasonable amount of "collateral," she may communicate with this bashful and blushing quilt driver.

The question as to what will be done with Arabi Bey is now being considered. The probabilities are that he will be sentenced to death, but the Sultan will endeavor to save his life and have his punishment commuted to banishment to the United States. If he could be sent here and elected to Congress, even his most relentless enemies ought to be entitled.

State Candidates.
The canvass for State offices, to be filled next August, has already opened up lively. A number of candidates are already in the field and new ones are constantly announcing themselves. There are three distinguished gentlemen announced as candidates for Governor and the gubernatorial state is probably made up. Hon. J.
Proctor Knott, of Marion, Col. Thos.
L. Jones, of Campbell and Judge M.
H. Owsley, of Garrard are the three gentlemen who are willing to serve the people. The first will be sold in his own section, strong in Louisville and Central Kentucky and in the rest of the State. Col. Jones will have a good following in Central Kentucky, will be the favorite in the mountains and will carry several counties in the First District. Judge Owsley will be formidable in his own section but unless he should team up as a dark horse his chances are not very flattering. The contest will be between Knott and Jones with the chances decidedly in favor of the former.

For Lieutenant Governor there are half a score already in and there will probably be several more. Col. E.
Polk Johnson, of Jefferson, Capt. J.
R. Hindman, of Adams, and Mr. A. B.
Smith, of Henry, are the most prominent. There is some talk of Capt. C.
T. Allen, of Caldwell, and Hon. Sam.
E. Hill, of Ohio, but they have put off announcing so long that Polk Johnson has the inside track in this part of the Commonwealth. The indications are that Col. Johnson will quit somewhere near the front.

Hon. P. W. Harrell, of Mercer, present incumbent; Col. R. A. Jones, of Jefferson, and Wilbur F. Browder, of Logan all want to be Attorney General and either of them would make a good officer. Mr. Browder will probably go into the convention with all of this part of the State sold for him but it is impossible to tell who will be the lucky man.

For Register of the Land Office, Capt. Ralph Shelton, of Nelson, present incumbent; Maj. J. Alex. Grant, of Franklin county; Hon. W. V.
Prather, of Harrison; Hon. Thos. H.
Carbett, of McCracken; Lynn Boyd, of Callaway and Chas. M. Gillespie, of Woodford are willing to serve the people.

Prof. J. D. Pickett is a candidate for re-election to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.
Prof. Z. F. Smith, of Henry, is also a candidate and the probabilities are that there will be half a score or more before the convention is called.
Fayette Hewitt is a candidate for Auditor another term and he will be hard to beat. It will probably be six months till the convention is held and the people may begin to get ready for the hand-shaking season.

The action of certain members of the State Central Committee in making war upon Hon. Thos. L. Jones, a prominent candidate for Governor, is reprehensible in the extreme. They have no right to espouse the cause of any candidate against another, occupying the positions they do. If the persecution of Col. Jones, inaugurated by the Breckinridge News and other papers favorable to Mr.
Knott, is kept up they will find that they will do their favorite more harm than they do Col. Jones. During the last Presidential campaign, Col. Ingersoll said in a speech, "Tell me the man who is abused and persecuted most without cause, and I will show you the one that will be elected." The American people like fair play and honest dealing, and when papers do like the Clark County Democrat, and ridicule the personal appearance of such distinguished gentlemen as Col. Jones, they descend below the level of that dignity which should characterize legitimate journalism. If they cannot oppose Col. Jones, or any other man, in a fair, honorable and dignified manner they should not make their journals mediums for low jests and insulting personalities.

The followers of Mr. Clay in this county are ashamed of their shameful and indecent attempt to break up the county convention, and there is not a fair-minded man amongst them who will not admit that Pettit was entitled to the county fairly and squarely. One of the leaders of the Clay side remarked to us a day or two ago, "We were no more entitled to Wilson, Fruit Hill and Hamby predicts than we were to so many counties out of the district. The truth of the business was that about $500 was bet on the county by men who could not afford to lose it, and we saw a chance to get up a squabble and draw the bets. We were not entitled to half the county, and I didn't go to Madisonville because I was afraid I would be called upon to tell the truth about the matter."

The Republicans are making a death struggle in the Eleventh, and are putting forth every effort to defeat Col.
Frank Wolford. The Democratic party cannot afford to let Wolford be beaten. He is as true as steel in his personal fealty and his election will knock the stuffing out of the late "Union Democrat Movement." The Republicans are striving to beat him in order to make capital of his defeat and the Democratic party must see that it is not done. Hubble has flooded the district with his corruption fund, had a gallant fight is being made and the indications are that the old battle-scarred hero will come under the cheering several lengths ahead.

The Muhlenberg Echo, one of the staunchest Democratic papers in Kentucky, is shortly to be enlarged to an eight column paper.

JUDGE GRACE.
The Democratic Convention of the First District which met at Paducah last Tuesday nominated Judge Jno.
R. Grace, of Trigg, by acclamation.
Col. Oscar Turner, of Louisville, will make the race as an independent candidate. Judge Grace's opponents bly the ablest and strongest man in the District and he will make it hot for the "Old Outlaw." He has accepted the nomination and will enter at once into a canvass of the District.
Judge Grace has for fifteen years been Circuit Judge of this district and is conceded on all hands to be one of the best judges in the State. He is a pioneer lawyer, ready and entertaining speaker and is fitted to adorn any position of honor in the gift of the people.
He is 48 years old and is a widower and has been for years. His physique is magnificent, as he is almost a giant physically. He enters the race with only about one month to canvass, but his prospects for success are bright. The Call Telephone which has been Turner's organ heretofore will support Judge Grace with enthusiasm and he will receive the solid vote of Trigg county. Should he be elected a vacancy will be left in this circuit district, which no man in the District can entirely fill. Judge Grace has never been a candidate for political office and the nomination for Congress came unlooked for and it was only at the earnest solicitation of a committee appointed to wait upon him that he consented to make the race.

Frank James has voluntarily surrendered to Gov. Crittenden, of Mississippi, and will take his chances in the courts. It is believed that Gov.
Crittenden has promised to pardon him. With Jesse in the grave and Frank in the hands of the law, the James gang may be said to be broken up.

The Congressional fight is over.
Some of us feel a little sore over the result, but we must remember we are Democrats, and that all true members of the party should support the nominee. Let the past be forgotten and let us stand by our candidate. We are no longer called upon to vote for Mr. Clay as an individual, but as the exponent of the glorious principles of our grand old party.

Mr. Emmett G. Logan, managing editor of the Courier-Journal, has resigned his position with that paper to accept a similar one with the News, the new paper to be started at Cincinnati this month. He is one of the most capable journalists in the South and the Courier-Journal has, under his management, attained a wider degree of popularity than ever before. Dan E. O'Sullivan, late city editor, will become the managing editor temporarily, and he is well fitted for the place.

Capt. C. T. Allen, editor of the Princeton Banner, has announced himself as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. He has been an active worker in the Democratic ranks for more than twenty years, has been editor of the Banner for half that time and served two terms in the Legislature, representing his county with distinguished ability. He is thoroughly capable and would fill the position to which he aspires with credit and ability.

Georgia elected State officers and a Legislature last week. Hon. Alex.
H. Stephens beat Lucius Garrett, Independent Democrat, by about 50,000 majority for Governor. The Legislature will be entirely Democratic, excepting about fifteen Independents and three or four negroes.
It is now certain that Gov. Colquitt will be elected to the Senate to succeed Hon. Ben H. Hill. The result insures the State a solid Democratic representation in Congress.

We have been censured by some for taking an active part in the Congressional race. We did what we conceived to be our duty and we have nothing to regret. In districts where a nomination is equivalent to an election, the contest should be made in our own ranks and the best men selected. It is a matter in which the people are interested, and a paper should have the manliness and courage to take a stand, and not try to toady to each and every candidate.

There seems to be a universal desire to have heated political contests settled by primary elections in this county in the future. We shall always speak in favor of the old method of primaries, where the polls can be opened and kept open all day, when there is likely to be a close contest. Many voters of this county swear they will never go into another convention, and when we remember the last two held in the county we can't blame them much.

An impartial, intelligent observer of politics in Christian, a supporter of Mr. Pettit in the race informs me that the vote of Christian was properly divided.—Owensboro Post.

We don't believe any such thing.
On the contrary if the Post can find one impartial, intelligent and truthful man in Christian county, who will make affidavit to the fact that Clay was entitled to half of Christian county, we will acknowledge that the bottlers at Madisonville were entitled to seats in the convention. We en-gave the names of members of Clay men that will certify that no conventions were held in three precincts counted for Mr. Clay, and yet the Post thinks there was no cause for kicking in Christian county. Any man who endorses such foul precedence in any party, is unfit to be trusted by the people.
